31. The principal Act is amended by the insertion after section 35 of the following sections:

“Powers of Centre in relation to non-profit organisations

35A. (1) For the purposes of combating the financing of terrorism, the Centre has the powers to identify whether a non-profit organisation is likely to be at risk or likely to be abused for the financing of terrorism.

(2) For the purposes of identification in terms of subsection (1), each non-profit organisation registered or operating in Namibia must -

(a) within a period of 60 days after the commencement of this provision, cause its applicable registration or regulatory authority to update and verify its registration details and applicable requirements to ensure that the non-profit organisation remains registered for the purpose for which it was initially registered; and

(b) before the non-profit organisation updates its registration details and applicable requirements in terms of paragraph (a), obtain a clearance certificate from the Centre after it has assessed whether the non-profit organisation is likely to be at any risk or likely to be abused for the financing of terrorism.

(3) Despite subsection (2) and for the purposes of subsection (1), the Centre -

(a) has the power to access or request for the records of a non-profit organisation registered or operating in Namibia in accordance with section 31; and

(b) may enter the premises and conduct an inspection on a non-profit organisation registered or operating in Namibia in accordance with section 53.

(4) If the Centre has identified that a non-profit organisation is likely to be at any risk or likely to be abused for the financing of terrorism, the Centre may by notice, in writing, to the non-profit organisation inform the non-profit organisation that -

(a) it has been identified as a non-profit organisation that is likely to be at risk or likely to be abused for the financing of terrorism; and

(b) the applicable provisions of this Act apply to the identified non-profit organisation.

Act No. 6, 2023*FINANCIAL INTELLIGENCE AMENDMENT ACT, 2023

(5) The identification referred to in subsection (4) may, amongst others, be based on -

- (a) the nature of threats posed by terrorist entities to non-profit organisations that are likely to be at risk or likely to be abused for financing of terrorism;
- (b) the findings of a risk assessment, trend or typology report identifying that due to the activity or characteristic of a non-profit organisation it is likely to be at risk or likely to be abused for financing of terrorism;
- (c) the type of donations received, or remittance made, by a non-profit organisation;
- (d) an activity or a characteristic of a non-profit organisation that is likely to be at risk or likely to be abused for financing of terrorism;
- (e) a non-profit organisation that is, amongst others, involved in -
  - (i) the cross-border movement of funds;
  - (ii) complex international transactions or structures;
  - (iii) cash fund-raising from anonymous sources; or
  - (iv) transferring or disbursing funds to entities not associated with its programmes or activities; or
- (f) any other matter making a non-profit organisation likely to be at risk or likely to be abused for financing of terrorism.

(6) The identified non-profit organisation must, within the period stated in the notice referred to in subsection (4), register with the Centre as an identified non-profit organisation for the purposes of this Act in accordance with any prescribed registration requirements.

(7) The Centre must keep a register of all non-profit organisations identified in terms of subsection (4) and the Centre must implement the necessary control measures on the identified non-profit organisations to combat the risk of financing of terrorism.

(8) The Centre has power to disseminate information on the identified non-profit organisations to domestic or foreign competent authorities or agencies that have similar powers and duties as that of the Centre using dedicated and secure channels for such dissemination.

(9) Without prejudice to any other remedies available to the Centre in terms of this Act or any other law, the Centre may make an urgent application to the High Court for -

- (a) an order to restrain an identified non-profit organisation from continuing operating its business; or

Act No. 6, 2023*FINANCIAL INTELLIGENCE AMENDMENT ACT, 2023

(b) the cancellation of the registration or licence of the identified non-profit organisation.

(10) The Minister may, in respect of an identified non-profit organisation, prescribe -

(a) the registration details and applicable requirements that must be updated and verified in terms of subsection (2);

(b) governing documents, management and control structure that an identified non-profit organisation must have in place;

(c) the grounds on which an identified non-profit organisation may be removed from the register of identified non-profit organisations;

(d) obligations that an identified non-profit organisation must comply with, including but not limited to -

(i) the keeping of records by the identified non-profit organisation;

(ii) establishing strong financial controls, monitoring systems and procedures to combat the financing of terrorism; and

(iii) disclosing the identity of donors and beneficiaries of donations.

(11) A non-profit organisation or an identified non-profit organisation that contravenes or fails to comply with subsection (2) or (6) commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding N$100 million or, where the commission of the offence is attributable to a representative of the organisation, to such fine or imprisonment for a period not exceeding 30 years, or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

Application of sections 31, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62 and 65

35B. Sections 31, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62 and 65 apply with the necessary changes to an identified non-profit organisation.”

Substitution of section 39 of Act No. 13 of 2012 as amended by section 63 of Act No. 4 of 2014

32. The principal Act is amended by the substitution for section 39 with the following section:

“Accountable institutions with foreign branches and subsidiaries

39. (1) An accountable institution with foreign branches or majority-owned subsidiaries must ensure that a group-wide anti-money laundering and combating the financing of terrorism or proliferation programme are implemented by its foreign branches or subsidiaries.
